Section 3: Current Basic Needs Efforts

Thanks for that information! Now we will move forward to ask some questions about what your institution is currently doing to support students' basic needs.

For clarity, when we say basic needs, we are referring to food and housing security, transportation, childcare, mental health, and other real-life factors that impact a student during their college experience.

To your knowledge, has your institution ever conducted a survey to assess students' basic needs security?

- Yes
- No

Who performed the assessment?

- Hope Center for College, Community, and Justice and/or Wisconsin HOPE Lab (the #RealCollege Survey)
- Internal assessment
- Another entity (please specify)

Is your institution interested in assessing students' basic needs security?

- Yes
- No

Do you currently offer assistance to address students' basic needs?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

Please select the assistance that you currently offer: (Select all that apply.)

Food Resources

- On-campus food pantry
- Swipes or free on-campus meal voucher program

Housing Resources

- A single point of contact for homeless students
- Emergency housing and resource referral system to homelessness services providers
- Affordable housing program in collaboration with the local public housing authority

Other

- A statement in course syllabi alerting students of available food and housing resources
- Emergency aid: financial or in-kind assistance
- On-campus benefits access hub
- Discounted parking and/or transportation pass
- Mental health services
- Childcare
- Other
- I don't know

When it comes to addressing students' basic needs, how would you rank these issues among your institution's current priorities? (Click and drag the answers to put them in order.)

Section 4: Partnership Opportunities

Next, we have some questions about the support your institution is looking for to further your work around student basic needs.

Please select the top 3 areas for which your institution would like support through a partnership with the Hope Center for College, Community, and Justice. (Select your top 3)

Supports Across Campus

- Increase faculty and staff awareness about students' basic needs insecurity
- Strategic planning to offer basic needs support to students
- Strengthen collaborations among college departments/divisions to enhance students' safety net
- Explore one-stop hub models to streamline the efforts conducted on campus
- Build systems and increase visibility of basic needs services on campus for students
- Start or improve an emergency aid program

Research

- Assess the basic needs insecurity of our students
- Evaluate an existing program aimed at addressing basic needs insecurity for our students

Building External Support

- Establish partnerships with external agencies to implement programs/services to secure students' basic needs
- Connect students to government benefits
- Increase funding to alleviate basic needs insecurity

Please share any additional support that your institution is interested in obtaining that is not listed above.

Faculty and Staff

Finally, we would like to know if your institution is interested in additional supports around faculty and staff basic needs.

Has your institution assessed the basic needs security of faculty and staff?

Yes

No

Is your institution interested in assessing the basic needs security of faculty and staff?

Yes

No

Thanks for your time and commitment to this work. We will review your responses and reach out within two weeks of your submission to discuss the potential support that we are positioned to provide. In the meantime, please check out the resources on our website: hope4college.com
