Learning from the #RealCollege Movement

Hello Friend,

Our first year has been quite the wild ride. We want to share some of our recent accomplishments as well as what we have coming up soon.

The #RealCollege movement is spreading, and more and more people are joining the cause. The plight of college students across the country is getting more attention, and even celebrities are jumping on board to spread awareness.

#RealCollege 2020! We will be at Rutgers University-Camden the weekend of October 10. Details to come.

#REAL COLLEGE CALIFORNIA

Couldn't make it to #RealCollege2019? Join us in Oakland instead!

The #RealCollegeCalifornia Basic Needs Summit is focused on providing a venue for practitioners in the California Community Colleges to come together to network and learn best practices for supporting our students with the greatest needs.
